

SUMMERLIN MORTGAGE COMPANY

Press Room

June 1, 2007 / Nevada

Reverse Mortgage Partnership Commitment to Education of Seniors Announced

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Las Vegas, NV (June 1, 2007) – Stephanie Prather, a Reverse Mortgage Planner with Summerlin Mortgage and President of NAPMW-Las announced today her commitment to the seniors of Las Vegas to educate and “myth bust” on the subject of Reverse Mortgages by. The chosen format for delivering this information will be FREE Monthly Seminars held at various locations throughout the Las Vegas Valley. The first Seminar will be held on Tuesday, June 12, 2007.

The creation of this presentation has come in response to the rising number of questions and “what is true and what is not” fallacies surrounding Reverse Mortgages (or Home Equity Conversion Mortgages - HECM). With over 70,000 seniors in Nevada who can not pay their monthly bills, the need within the Las Vegas community for accurate information is growing every day.

Stephanie Prather and Summerlin Mortgage have the distinction of being FHA approved and experienced. Stephanie has been educating seniors and working with Reverse Mortgages since 2000. In addition to her professional career, she is an active member of the Aging Services Directors Organization and serves on the Public Policy Committee of NAWBO (The National Association of Women Business Owners).

“We want to educate our clients about all facets of Reverse Mortgages. By attending one of our Seminars, attendees, whether they are seniors, their adult children, or Guardians will receive factual information about Reverse Mortgages and how they really work. Afterward, I make myself available for specific Questions and Answers about individual situations and needs”.

In addition to Seminars, Stephanie Prather has done local talk radio (1280 AM) appearances and she makes herself available for telephone or face-to-face appointments with people seeking to better understand Reverse Mortgages. She can be reached at Summerlin Mortgage (2400 S Cimarron Suite 130, Las Vegas, NV 89117–702-804-0039 or directly at 702-321-7428. For more information on Stephanie Prather or how a Reverse Mortgage is an important financial option for seniors, for debt reduction, estate planning, gifting or lifestyle enhancement, please visit the website at www.stephanieprather.com.

*2400 S Cimarron Rd Suite 130
Las Vegas, Nevada 89117
Ph 702-804-0039 Fx 702-968-8704*