Senior Resource Council Panelist to Present “The Basics of Reverse Mortgages”

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Las Vegas, NV (September 6, 2007) – The Senior Resource Council, a local group who support seniors in the Las Vegas community will be presenting a paneled dialogue to better understand specific resources available to seniors.

Stephanie Prather, a Reverse Mortgage Planner with Summerlin Mortgage, President of NAPMW-Las Vegas and active member of NRMLA (National Reverse Mortgage Lenders Association) accepted the honored invitation today to participate as a panelist.

The focus of Ms. Prather’s business practice is working with seniors to educate them and their adult children about the FHA regulated Home Equity Conversion Mortgage (aka “Reverse Mortgage”) In addition to the Senior Resource Council, Stephanie is an active member of ASDO (Aging Services Directors Organization).

Other panel members will include estate planning attorneys, long term care specialists, skilled nursing and hospice providers, financial consultants and home health care givers. These professionals in their field are donating their time and attendees are encouraged to participate by asking questions during the Q and A portion.

The public is invited to attend this free panel discussion on September 10, 2007 at 2205 East Harmon Avenue from 7:30am to 9:00am. To attend contact Deborah Porter at 702-505-7110.
